

European Master of Science in Occupational Therapy: Graduated students and Master Theses 2016

Name/first name (country)	Title of the Masterthesis
Bin Zainal, Mohamad Nizar (Singapore)	"The journey is not occupation-focused all the time" – A phenomenological exploration of the use of occupations by occupational therapists in the Singapore acute care sector (Jan. 2016)
Echsel, Angelika (Switzerland)	"Together on the way" - Emerging occupational therapy practice in mainstream schools in Switzerland. A narrative study (Jan. 2016)
Häberli, Sandra (Switzerland)	Social connections with people living with severe mental illness: Experiences of mental health professionals (Jan. 2016)
Hoellinger, Pauline (Belgium)	The Implementation process of the Canadian Occupational Performance Measure: Perception and Experience of Occupational therapists (Jan. 2016)
Kälin, Vera (Switzerland)	Validity of Norms of the School Version of the Assessment of Motor and Process Skills for Middle European children (Jan. 2016)
Lüthi, Muriel (Switzerland)	Remaining at work despite work-related upper extremity disorder: A qualitative study about Swiss workers experience (Jan. 2016)
Marthe – Grob, Cathrin (Switzerland)	The essence of everyday activities for people suffering from depression pre to post occupational therapy treatment: A phenomenological study (Jan. 2016)

Schuler, Anja-Sofie (Germany)	The elderly in prison: occupations between occupational deprivation and occupational enrichment (Jan. 2016)
van Melick, Margot (the Netherlands)	Strategies and underlying motives among persons with pain related fear while performing occupations (Jan. 2016)
Blokker, Erica (the Netherlands)	Engaging family caregivers in the occupational therapy process. Perceptions of occupational therapists (Sept. 2016)
Cipriani, Amanda (Brasil)	The impact of substance use disorders in quality of life and human occupations: a cross-sectional study from a gender perspective (Sept. 2016)
Christen, Irene (Switzerland)	Virtual Reality Intervention for Stroke Patients: Change of Arm Usage in Daily Activities after a Virtual Reality-based Therapy Intervention for People with Hemiplegic Stroke (Sept. 2016)
te Dorsthorst, Jeroen (the Netherlands)	How childhood cancer survivors reflect on the influence of late effects and their childhood cancer history to their occupational identity. A narrative study (Sept. 2016)
Kester, Angelique (the Netherlands)	Vietnamese caregivers reflections on activities of daily life in relation to PEDI (Sept. 2016)
Rückriem, Bärbel (Switzerland)	Lived experience of caregivers in Switzerland when providing the first wheelchair to children with severe cerebral palsy (GMFCS & MACS IV/V). An Interpretative Phenomenological Analysis Study (Sept. 2016)
Teufen, Nina (Switzerland)	Lived experiences of co-occupation of everyday life among couples being parents for the first time - A phenomenological study (Sept. 2016)
Zischeck, Fay (Switzerland)	Resilience in everyday life: experiences of individuals with a work-related musculoskeletal disorder of the upper extremity (Sept. 2016)

European Master of Science in Occupational Therapy: Graduated students and Master Theses January 2017

Name/first name (country of residence)	Title of the Masterthesis
André, Marielle (France)	An experience of occupational therapists using the Mini-Activities Approach to empower patients' resilience in their daily life
Bakker, Kim (The Netherlands)	The lived experiences of balancing daily activities by adults with a visual impairment experiencing fatigue
Ballmer, Thomas (Switzerland)	Test-retest and inter-rater reliability of the Danish version of the Management of Everyday Technology Assessment for use with well older adults and older adults living with COPD
Bertrand, Romain (Switzerland)	How is driving cessation experienced by older people? An occupational perspective on the transition from driving to driving cessation
Egger, Selina (Switzerland)	Older people's perspectives on facilitators and barriers for participation in occupational therapy health promotion programs
Hasler, Fabienne (Switzerland)	Participation of wheelchair users in public transport. A qualitative study of Swiss manual wheelchair users
Köttl, Hanna (Switzerland)	Everyday technology use among older adults with and without Alzheimer's disease and Mild Cognitive Impairment in relation to perceived Life Satisfaction
Leenders, Jacqueline (The Netherlands)	Incidence, Location and Severity of Pressure Ulcers and their Impact on Participation among People with Long-term Spinal Cord Injury
Mwirigi, Purity (Saudi Arabia)	The influence of Saudi Arabian culture on foreign Occupational Therapists daily intervention processes: An exploratory study

Nijhuis, Elieke (The Netherlands)	Increased Awareness in People with COPD after Occupational Therapy
Njuguna, Beth (Saudia Arabia)	Views of school-based therapists and special education teachers on collaboration and pull-out models of service delivery
Petrig, Andrea (Switzerland)	Experiences of occupational therapists working with Diagnose Related Groups management in Switzerland
Rennhack, Frauke (Switzerland)	Work-related situation and goal-achievement of psychiatric patients receiving Pre-Vocational Therapy - A cross-sectional study
Rothenberger, Esther (Switzerland)	Occupational therapists' experiences with occupation-based acute and non-acute hand therapy practice - A phenomenological study
Zurbrügg, Alea (Switzerland)	A qualitative study on occupational therapists' reasoning in stroke rehabilitation

Are you interested in one of these topics? Please contact the administrative office: ot-euromaster@hva.nl