

Zürich University of Applied Sciences
Institute of Chemistry and Biotechnology
Competence Centre TEDD
Einsiedlerstrasse 31
8820 Wädenswil

Dr. Nicolas Späth, Veterinäramt Basel-Stadt, Schlachthofstrasse 55, CH-4056 Basel
Basel, 10.07.2021

Further training under the Animal Welfare Ordinance: recognition recommended

Dear Sir or Madam

The event mentioned below has been examined on the basis of the submitted documents, and is supported by Art. 189 and Art. 190, as well as in the area of animal experimentation Art. 199 para. 4, of the Animal Welfare Ordinance of 23 April 2008 (AniWO; SR 455.1) together with Art. 49, Art. 50 and Art. 57 of the FDHA Ordinance on Training Qualifications in Animal Husbandry and Animal Care of 5 September 2008 (APTO, SR 455.109.1). As a result, the Swiss Association of Cantonal Veterinarians (SACV) recommends the competent cantonal authorities to recognise this event in the ambit of the obligation to further training.

Event: TEDD Annual Meeting 2021: Cross-industrial applications of organotypic models

From date	to date
14.10.2021	14.10.2021

Organizer: Zürich University of Applied Sciences
Institute of Chemistry and Biotechnology
Competence Centre TEDD

Event venue: Wädenswil, Schweiz

Registration address:

Recognition to the extent of:

- 0.5 day/s for Animal welfare officers
- 0.5 day/s for Study directors
- 0.5 day/s for Involved persons

Events recommended for recognition are entered in animex-ch and on the FSVO website.

Swiss Association of Cantonal Veterinarians
Association Suisse des Vétérinaires Cantonaux

Nicolas Späth
Recognition group experimental animals