Learning outcomes	After completing the module, students will be able to:
and competences	differentiate levels of management – normative, strategic, operational differentiate forms of leadership: indirect vs. direct differentiate management from leadership • differentiate vision and mission and evaluate their importance for and impact on the corporate culture and success of a company apply the basics of a strategy definition process link strategy with budgeting, describe the benefits of budgeting and create a simple budget
	• acquire the basics of the HRM cycle and the role of an executive (focus on staffing) • assess the impact of an executive on staff members – leadership styles and their impact on leadership develop a personalized toolbox to be used as a future executive Module contents	Whether there is a difference in management and leadership is widely discussed in theory. For sure they have a strong interdependency; they are interlinked and sometimes hard to differentiate. In this module we will differentiate the abilities and skills required to run a company from abilities and skills that are required to lead people. We will show how management and leadership are related and that skills in management and leadership are required to successfully run a company.
	Treated topics on indirect Leadership: Management (= how to run a company) General
	 Leading people (=Leadership) vs. managing a company (=Management) Planning: Corporate Culture, Strategy, Goals and Budgeting
	- Different management levels and respective goals Introduction to strategic management – differentiation of corporate vs. business strategy
	 Strategy development process: Learning along the methodology and tools:
	 Tools for strategic analyses
