Master of Science (MSc)

Building Competence. Crossing Borders.

“Our Master’s program provides students with the knowledge, skills, and mindset needed to compete and succeed in a world where global collaboration is key. This highly international, interdisciplinary, and practical degree serves as a gateway to a wide range of career opportunities and as a platform for personal and professional growth.”

Prof. Petra Youngzie Barthelmess, Head of MSc in International Business

Editorial

How can we grapple the constantly evolving global business landscape? How can companies develop a competitive edge in anticipating and responding to market changes? How do you negotiate business deals with international partners? How do you lead cross-national teams? And how can you integrate ethical standards into your company's strategy?

These are some of the typical challenges companies face in today's globalized business world. Sectors as diverse as life sciences, energy and utilities, mechanical and electrical engineering, luxury goods, and fashion are rethinking their international business operations.

At the ZHAW School of Management and Law (SML), we maintain strong connections with international businesses and recognize their demand for emerging talents. To meet this demand, we educate and train business school graduates with a robust skill set: a profound grasp of the ever evolving and complex global business landscape, a comprehensive education in international business and management, and the practical application of these concepts. This is complemented by intensive training in cross-cultural communication and collaboration, leadership, negotiation, adaptability and problem-solving – critical for thriving in intricate, dynamic environments. Our Master of Science (MSc) is aimed at ambitious, performance-oriented business and management graduates keen to develop and cultivate such a profile and to internationalize their careers.

EQUIS

The ZHAW School of Management and Law (SML) has been accredited by the European Quality Improvement System (EQUIS) since 2023. This is one of the leading systems for the assessment, improvement, and accreditation of business schools at an international level. It recognizes high standards in teaching, research, and executive education.

AACSB

The SML has been accredited by the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB) since 2015. In 2020, the AACSB extended this accreditation for another five years. Only about six percent of business schools worldwide have been awarded this seal of quality by the leading accrediting body.

FT RANKING

As attested by the prestigious Financial Times rankings, the MSc in International Business belongs to the 100 best Masters in Management programs worldwide. In addition, the SML features in the Financial Times ranking of leading European Business Schools.

Five Reasons for Getting a Master's Degree at the SML

PRACTICAL ORIENTATION

At the ZHAW School of Management and Law (SML), not only are instructors academically qualified, but they also have extensive practical experience as well as access to a broad professional network. Teaching is oriented towards practical experience. In addition, the program provides opportunities for you to meet potential future employers.

DIGITAL LEARNING

Teaching at the SML is continually being developed and updated to incorporate modern teaching methods. Digitally supported learning makes content descriptive, enables learning to be more flexible in terms of time and place, and integrates career-relevant media tools into the study program.

INTERNATIONAL ALIGNMENT

The SML has a network of over 190 selected partner universities worldwide, enabling students to gain valuable experience abroad.

AWARDED AND ACCREDITED

The SML has been awarded AACSB and EQUIS accreditation – two prestigious seals of approval that internationally recognize the quality of our degrees, research, and executive education. The SML is regularly included in rankings published by the Financial Times, including the best European business schools' listing.

STAYING CONNECTED

Our campus is located in Winterthur, in close proximity to the financial and business center of Zurich and well connected to the public transportation network. In addition, the close ties the SML has to companies and organizations as well as its extensive alumni network will give you excellent career prospects.

Consecutive Master's Program

The next step in your professional career

Consecutive Master's degree programs are targeted mainly at exceptionally capable and ambitious Bachelor's graduates seeking a further academic qualification and possessing a keen scientific interest.

THE BENEFITS OF A CONSECUTIVE MASTER'S PROGRAM

The minimum requirement for participation in a consecutive Master's program is a Bachelor's degree or equivalent qualification. Consecutive Master's programs at universities of applied sciences typically comprise 90 ECTS credits. This corresponds to a workload of approximately 2,700 hours, usually spread over four or six semesters. Consecutive Master's programs build on the content of Bachelor's degree programs. They offer a professional specialization with scientific skills development and high practical relevance. They promote professional, methodological, social, and self-competence and open up career prospects in middle and senior management. Our consecutive Master's programs are recognized internationally, so they also enable graduates to pursue a career outside Switzerland.

NOT ALL MASTER'S PROGRAMS ARE THE SAME

A consecutive Master's program is the second level of education in the university system and should not be confused with the MAS (Master of Advanced Studies) or the MBA (Master of Business Administration). Both the MAS and MBA are continuing education programs and require several years of practical experience on the part of participants. With a consecutive Master's program, the workload is greater, and academic standards are higher.

STRUCTURE

|----------------------|--|
| DEGREE PROGRAM | MSc Master of Science 90 ECTS credits* |
| | BSc Bachelor of Science 180 ECTS credits |
| CONTINUING EDUCATION | MBA Master of Business Administration 90 ECTS credits |
| | ExM Executive Master in Marketing Leadership 60 ECTS credits |
| | MAS Master of Advanced Studies 60 ECTS credits |
| | DAS Diploma of Advanced Studies 30 ECTS credits |
| | CAS Certificate of Advanced Studies 12 ECTS credits |

* Credits are based on the ECTS credit system (European Credit Transfer System). Credits create transparency in European education through a standardized evaluation of academic achievements. At the ZHAW School of Management and Law, one credit represents 30 hours of work in a (BSc/MSc) degree program and 25–30 hours of work in a continuing education program.

The Program's Value-Added

Boost your career to the next level

Are you interested in pursuing a career in a global business environment? Are you keen to embrace new challenges requiring solid management know-how and intercultural skills?

THE DEMAND FOR MANAGERS WITH INTERNATIONAL SKILLS

In Switzerland alone, there are over 35,000 companies operating internationally (according to the Federal Statistical Office). They are all faced with the challenge of having to internationalize their products and services in order to remain a lasting presence in their chosen markets.

The graduates of our MSc program in International Business have specific management skills that make them ideal candidates for junior executive and specialist positions in international companies. They are able to draw on extensive, scientifically validated knowledge and on a skill set encompassing both general and international business practice.

A WIDE SPECTRUM OF CAREER OPTIONS

Our graduates can choose from a range of potential employers and occupational fields. Ideal entry-level positions can be found in the private sector, in public administration, and in nonprofit organizations (NPOs), including:

- International business development
- General management activities as part of international projects
- Assistants to members of boards of directors or division heads
- Staff activities, especially in an international or intercultural environment
- Consulting activities (e.g., internal consultants or junior consultants in management consultancies)
- Business consultants in an international environment

The ZHAW School of Management and Law has close ties to international companies in Switzerland and abroad. Our Career Services support its students and graduates in finding suitable employment.

Graduate Competency Profile

Graduates of this program are able to:

- Design and plan internationalization processes of companies and contribute to their implementation
- Manage international business processes
- Analyze and provide solutions for intercultural challenges
- Lead culturally and demographically diverse teams and small organizational units
- Conduct scientifically and methodologically sound research projects
- Use their research skills to produce qualified results and solve complex business problems
- Understand sustainable development

Eight Benefits of Our MSc in International Business

Why the program might be right for you

Developing expert knowledge and practical skills for an international business career

1 A TOP MASTER'S DEGREE

Earn a degree from one of the top business schools worldwide by completing one of the 100 best management Master's programs according to the Financial Times ranking.

2 A MASTER'S DEGREE IN ONE YEAR

This is a full-time, one-year program that saves time as well as costs in terms of study fees and living expenses. Students can focus on their studies and (re-)join the job market in record time.

3 GREAT CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

The curriculum was developed in close cooperation with global companies and is geared towards their needs. It enables students to kick-start their careers and work in an international environment.

4 DIVERSITY

The program attracts a diverse group of students from all over the world. This diversity is paralleled by the faculty's international experience and professional backgrounds, which helps students gain interdisciplinary knowledge and cross-cultural understanding.

5 INNOVATIVE TEACHING METHODS

The program imparts essential managerial, leadership, and business development competencies through formats and activities such as lectures, projects, simulation games, design thinking workshops, intensive weekly seminars, and study trips.

6 SMALL CLASS SIZE AND INDIVIDUAL SUPPORT

This Master's program is characterized by small classes, highly motivated students, and individual support provided by faculty members. All of this promotes efficient learning and skills development.

7 CLOSE TIES TO BUSINESSES

Students have the opportunity to work with well-known local and international companies, to analyze and solve real-world business problems and provide practical business-oriented solutions.

8 INTERNATIONAL DOUBLE DEGREE OPTION

The program offers double degree options with partner universities in the United States as well as Europe.

Program Overview

Expand and strengthen core business competencies

With a consecutive Master's program, graduates continue their higher education after obtaining a Bachelor's degree. A Master's program provides a comprehensive set of qualifications in accordance with guidelines developed in the Bologna Process.

THE QUICKEST PATH TO A MASTER'S DEGREE

The MSc program in International Business is a full-time course of study consisting of a preliminary program, two intensive semesters of study, and a semester in which to write the Master's thesis. This last semester requires minimum attendance, and students are free to spend most of their time away from campus. The intensive workload in this program is designed for ambitious students with high levels of self-management ability.

The curriculum is built around the program's two core topics: business internationalization and intercultural management and leadership. Students strengthen their competencies and apply them in practical research and consulting projects.

PRELIMINARY PROGRAM

The orientation days will help students, especially those from abroad, to become familiar with ZHAW and the ZHAW School of Management and Law (SML) and meet their fellow students. This is followed up by the two-week intensive Business Boot Camp that refreshes students' general management knowledge and introduces students to change and innovation management. This using the format of problem-based learning and design thinking methodology. It ensures a common level of understanding and lays the groundwork for more advanced program content.

INTENSIVE SEMESTER 1

The first semester focuses on

- Research and consulting methodology
- Internationalization and innovation management

- Strategic management
- Financial as well as risk management

This is all students need to run their first business project.

INTENSIVE SEMESTER 2

The second semester deals with

- Global business environment analysis
- Intercultural management and leadership skills
- Research Design
- Industry deep dives in the field of luxury and technology

Students run their second business project and kick-start their preparation for their Master's thesis.

A DOUBLE DEGREE

Students opting for a double degree complete the MSc program at the SML before continuing their studies abroad.

SCIENCE AND APPLICATION

This Master's degree program is strongly devoted to research methodology learning and skill development: Parallel to in-class input, students themselves have ample opportunity to carry out application-oriented research projects and thus learn to apply theoretical insight. At the end of their studies, students write an academic Master's thesis on a topic of practical relevance.

We consider it to be of vital importance that students acquire scientific competencies they can use to solve the real-life problems of the professional world.

TEACHING AND LEARNING

The program follows the principle of practice-oriented learning. To ensure that science and application are integrated effectively, instructors at Master's level are all senior lecturers with academic qualifications as well as current practical experience.

The MSc in International Business consists of 16 modules and a Master's thesis that together promote entrepreneurial, professional, and methodological know-how.

LANGUAGE OF INSTRUCTION

Classes as well as the course materials are in English.

Program Structure

Ideally suited for professional development

This is a full-time course of study with strong practice orientation.

Modules

Fifteen modules and a Master's thesis are the key to success

BUSINESS BOOT CAMP: GETTING DOWN TO BUSINESS

The Master's program starts with Business Boot Camp, which brings students from different backgrounds to a common level of knowledge and understanding. This module refreshes students' general management knowledge and introduces students to change and innovation management. This using the format of problem-based learning and design thinking methodology.

GLOBAL GROWTH AND INNOVATION

Students explore the internationalization strategies and processes of companies from various industries. The module refers to the newest developments in the area of international business such as business ecosystems, contextual intelligence, digital transformation, and disruptive innovations.

STRATEGIC MANAGEMENT

This module covers advanced strategic management in international context. Students will analyze, design, and evaluate business environment, purpose, strategies, and their implementation with the aim to drive change and renewal.

RESEARCH METHODOLOGY & SKILLS

Based on a basic understanding of research philosophies and methodologies as well as solid skills in statistics, students get to know, understand, and apply more systematic quantitative and qualitative research methodologies based on real-life management and research problems.

RESEARCH PROJECT

In groups, students identify research gaps in predefined literature and fill these gaps, usually by conducting, presenting, and defending appropriate empirical research studies.

BUSINESS RESEARCH AND CONSULTING

Students gain a deeper understanding of applied and discipline-based research related to problem-solving in business. In addition, students acquire and practice the skills necessary to convince an audience of the suitability of the solutions developed.

FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT

Students gain a deeper understanding of the concepts of finance management from a general management perspective and apply these in an international context. Topics include financial planning, analysis, and valuation with a focus on linking these activities to corporate management decision-making.

RISK MANAGEMENT

Based on a basic understanding of financial management and international relations and politics as well as cultures and civilizations, students study, understand, and apply the topic of risk management, including financial risk management, in an international context. They solve existing case studies and develop new case studies based on specific questions.

Double Degree

After completing this program at the SML, students have the option of obtaining a double degree by continuing their studies at a selected partner university.

BUSINESS PROJECT 1 AND 2

In groups, students conduct an in-depth analysis of a real-life international business problem and propose an appropriate solution (in the form of a paper) and an implementation plan based on their knowledge and ability to apply relevant know-how, frameworks, and methods. The solution is presented to the management of the companies.

GLOBAL BUSINESS ENVIRONMENT

Students acquire theoretical and practical knowledge of the global business environment. They develop an in-depth understanding and appreciation of various economic, political, legal, and social systems in the modern business world.

RESEARCH DESIGN

Students learn to draft a suitable strategy to answer their research questions. They deepen their knowledge about qualitative and quantitative research designs/methodologies and study related methods for data collection and analysis.

INTERCULTURAL MANAGEMENT & LEADERSHIP

This module supports students in navigating culturally diverse global environments, emphasizing effective leadership and management practices across cultures. It equips students with cross-cultural communication skills, intercultural competence, and the ability to lead themselves and others as well as collaborate effectively in multicultural settings. By integrating students' own cross-cultural collaborative experiences and learnings this module supports students' problem-solving capacity, it facilitates the nurturing of their soft skills thereby contributing to their personal development and growth.

CAPSTONE: CREATING SUSTAINABLE IMPACT

This module offers a space for reflection and a platform for consolidation of key skills learnt over the program. It will draw upon experimental and agile settings to challenge and test the learnings from previous modules.

FRONTIERS OF TECHNOLOGY ELECTIVE

AI, machine learning, quantum computing – innovative technologies will certainly keep coming along in the future, and every business will need to know how to handle them. Thus, in this module, students will learn how to use different techniques to evaluate the opportunities and challenges of The Next Big Thing.

LUXURY AND CREATIVE INDUSTRIES ELECTIVE

Students understand the status quo and the key drivers of change in the international luxury business and gain industry- and segment-specific marketing and strategy knowledge. They are able to put their knowledge of theories and models into practice.

“What is particularly exciting about this program is the close cooperation with international companies, enabling the students to conduct academic research and actively participate in problem solving and strategy implementation.”

Dr. Albena Björck, Senior Lecturer, MSc in International Business

Accreditations and Rankings

Your degree is internationally recognized

AACSB and EQUIS accreditations and inclusion in the prestigious Financial Times rankings increase the value of our Master's degrees on the international job market.

BUILDING COMPETENCE. CROSSING BORDERS.

As part of a university of applied sciences, the SML conducts applied research according to the needs of industry and commerce. In collaboration with private and public organizations, our institutes and centers develop innovative and science-based solutions to current challenges in business and administration. In line with our guiding principle "Building Competence. Crossing Borders," we combine our own expertise with that of other schools at Zurich University of Applied Sciences (ZHAW), industry partners, and our global network of 190 partner universities.

Our research focuses on practical application, and is rapidly introduced in our classroom teaching and consulting services. This allows our lecturers to draw on genuine cases and create relevant learning materials. In this way, students can work on realistic case studies, apply the theories they have learned, and be better prepared for the challenges of the business world. A degree program at the SML leads directly to professional competence.

To meet all performance areas, the SML places great emphasis not only on academic qualifications but also on extensive professional and leadership experience when recruiting new faculty members. Our lecturers have a broad network of contacts that benefit our students. Likewise, students commissioned by a company to write a Master's thesis may later be offered employment or given a recommendation by that company. SML Career Services is also available to support graduates in preparing for the next stage of their careers.
