

Summer School 2019 for PhD Students in Local Governance

Friday (5.7)	Saturday (6.7)	Sunday (7.7)	Monday (8.7)	Tuesday (9.7)	Wednesday (10.7)	Thursday (11.7)	Friday (12.7)
Individual Arrival at Winterthur			8:15 - 10:00 Session 2: How Can We Measure Local Autonomy? Prof. Andreas Ladner	8:15 - 10:00 Session 3: How Can Inter-Governmental Relations Improve Service Delivery at the Local Level? Prof. Filipe Teles	8:15 - 10:30 Session 4: Financial Resilience of Local Government Prof. Iris Saliterer	8:15 - 10:30 Session 6: Citizen Participation and Digital Transformation in Local Governments Dr. Lisa Schmidhuber	8:15 - 10:00 Session 7: Governance and Decision-Making in Local Governments Prof. Bert George
	9:00 - 11:00 Opening Session: Is Local Always Better? Prof. Reto Steiner
			Coffee Break	Coffee Break			Coffee Break
			10:30 - 12:00 Continuation of Session 2: How Can We Measure Local Autonomy? Prof. Andreas Ladner	10:30 - 12:00 Continuation of Session 3: How Can Inter-Governmental Relations Improve Service Delivery at the Local Level? Prof. Filipe Teles	Coffee Break & Paper presentations by PhD students	Coffee Break & Paper presentations by PhD students	10:30 - 12:00 Continuation of Session 7: Governance and Decision-Making in Local Governments Prof. Bert George
	11:15 - 12:30 Continuation of Opening Session: Is Local Always Better? Prof. Reto Steiner				11:00 Does inter-municipal cooperation really reduce delivery costs? An empirical evaluation of the Role of Scale Economies, Transaction Costs, and Governance Arrangements (Marianna Sebo being graded)	11:00 Communication of urban planning in a centralized context in Egypt (Mennatullah Hendawy being graded)
	Coffee Break				11:30 Assessing administrative efficiency and service quality effects of the Norwegian Local Government Reform (Thomas Myksvoll without being graded)	11:30 Enhancing Civic Engagement - The Role of Place Attachmen, Neighbourhood Ties and Civiv Responsibility (Lisa Dang without being graded)
			12:00 - 13:00 Lunch	12:00 - 12:30 Short Break + Lunch to go		12:00 A temproral exploration of culture-led urban regeneration in Brunnenviertel, Vienna (Tiina Hotakainen without being graded)	12:00 - 13:00 Lunch
	12:30 - 13:30 Lunch				12:00 - 13:00 Lunch		Paper presentations by PhD students
			13:00 - 14:45 Parallel sessions: How Do I Publish my PhD thesis articles? (Dr. Germà Bel) / Q & A Quantitative Methodology (Dr. Oliver Bachmann)		13:00 Session 5: Does Decentralization Lead to Better Input Legitimacy? Prof. Andreas Ladner		13:00 Additional session: The Role of Local Government in Thailand under the Unstable National Democracy (Dr. Chokchai Suttawet)
	13:30 - 15:00 Session 1: Co-Production of Public Services at the Local Tier of Government Prof. Denita Cepiku						13:30 Social participation in preparing commune's development strategy; the most effective model of cooperation and methods to involve community (Dawid Ochota being graded)
			Coffee Break & Paper presentations by PhD students		Coffee Break & Paper presentations by PhD students		Coffee Break
			15:00 Assessment of the impact of political influence on urban governance and urban development in selected cities in Tanzania (Bariki Mwasaga being graded)	12:30 - 18:00 Excursion to Aarau: The Role of Superordinate Tiers of Government in Local Governance Yvonne Reichlin-Zobrist and Marc Schmellentin, Canton of Aargau	15:00 What are the centralisation factors for public services co-production? Reflections based on a local initiative and a community fund in Poland (Bartosz Wilk being graded)	13:00 - 16:00 Excursion to the City of Zürich on Urban Development Anna Schindler, Director of Urban Development, City of Zürich	14:15 Transportation Infrastructure Policy in Germany: A Comparative Study on the Role of the German Federal States (Richard Schenk without being graded)
			15:30 Effects of community size on the public perceptions of the effectiveness of citizens' control over political decisions and effects of the public perceptions of the service delivery in Armenia (Arman Gasparyan being graded)	Train (S11) from Winterthur to Aarau, departure at 12:39, arrival 13:35 Train (S11) from Aarau to Winterthur, departure at 16:47, arrival 17:51	15:30 Does EU public policy fail on the local level? The implementation of the EU-nitrogen dioxide limit values-case study of city of Oldenburg (Katharina Heidmann without being graded)	Train (S12) from Winterthur to Zürich, departure at 13:22	14:45 Managing Smart Cities as Collaborative Innovation Projects (Olga Trunova being graded)
	15:30 - 17:00 Continuation of Session 1: Co-Production of Public Services at the Local Tier of Government Prof. Denita Cepiku	13:00 - 19:30 Meeting at 12:50 in front of the hotel IBIS Excursion to Aeschler	Coffee Break		Coffee Break		15:15 Wrap-up of the Summer School with Prof. Reto Steiner
			16:15 How do development actors go about designing, crafting and operationalising collaborative approaches? What are evidence that show that collaborative structures shape development outcome? (Jason Alinsunurin being graded)		16:15 Network Governance, complexity theory, and public health emergency response in South Korea: A comparative study of SARS and MERS (Jiyoun Chang without being graded)		16:00 Individual Departure
			16:45 Decentralised Cooperation in Development and aid/ development effectiveness. The added-value of local governments (Magdalena Kenia without being graded)		16:45 Reasons for Reforms of School Administration Structures - an Analysis of the German Case (Benoit Paul Dumas without being graded)
17:00 - 18:00 Welcome Desk for PhD Students at the hotel IBIS						16:00 - 19:30 Time to go swimming or have a guided tour around the city
	Time to go back to the hotel		Time to go back to the hotel
	18:00 open end Meeting at 18:09 in front of the main station "Hauptbahnhof" to go to Zürich " Zürifaescht " Train (S11) from Winterthur to Zürich, departure at 18:09		18:15 - 21:30 Formal dinner at the restaurant Goldenberg in Winterthur, meeting point in front of the ZHAW SML Auditorium at 18:00			19:30 - 21:30 Dinner in Zürich

* All sessions during the Summer School including the presentations by the PhD students will be held at the ZHAW School of Management and Law Auditorium, St.-Georgen-Platz 2, 8401 Winterthur.