

Decisions, Assessment, Risk and Evidence in Social Work – DARE 2024 conference

Thursday 20th June to Friday 21st June 2024, at the Zurich University of Applied Sciences (ZHAW), Campus Toni-Areal, Zurich

<https://www.zhaw.ch/dare>

Program

Version 3, 6 June 2024

20 June 2024
From	To	What (title, presenting authors)
9:00	10:00	Registration and welcome coffee
10:00	10:15	Welcome and introduction
10:15	11:15	Plenary I "Can using predictive risk models reduce racial bias?" Evidence from Child Welfare and Homelessness Systems - Rhema Vaithianathan
11:15	11:45	Coffee Break
11:45	13:15	Sessions I	Parallel Session 1.1 Children and youth in out-of-home care	Parallel Session 1.2 Social workers wellbeing and their perspectives on social work issues	Parallel Session 1.3 Assessment and judgment processes in social work fields
		11.45-12.05	164 Implementing "Child Guarantee" Program in Greece George Nikolaidis	158 The effect of technology mediated mindfulness on stress and burnout of social workers in Romania Florin Lazăr, Anca Mihai	118 Social workers' assessment of a child's need for services as 'craftwork' practice Tuuli Lamponen
		12.05-12.25	103 Decision-making processes on emergency foster care: How to improve them? Rosa Sitjes-Figueras	131 "You have to be on guard that they don't try to abolish our profession" – Views on AI-based algorithmic decision-making systems from a stakeholder perspective Diana Schneider	173 Decision-making as "social problems work" - a case study from adult protection Martina Koch, Philomina Bloch-Chakkalakal
		12.25-12.45	140 Factors associated with placement instability amongst children in care: A scoping review of international literature Laura Elizabeth Cowley	177 Individual and Organizational Determinants of Attitudes towards Evidence-Based Practice among Child Protective Services Workers in Portugal Diogo Lamela	114 "Tell them what they want to hear": Re-considering assessment practices with people who are homeless Karl Mason
		12.45-13.05	122 The Importance of Reunification Expectations for Young People's Sense of Belonging in Residential Care Jana Osswald		Parallel Session 1.4 Symposium Lesson from the child protection workforce: Studies of the role of attitudes, beliefs, stereotypes and bias in decision making (166, Chair: John Fluke) 166.1 The effect of child protection attitudes on child protection decision-making: the mediating role of stereotypes John Fluke 166.2 Mechanisms that explain judgments and decisions during Initial Assessments in an Irish Case Study: interactions in the Decision Making Ecology Donna O'Leary 166.3 Dalglish score differences amongst professional roles within the greater child welfare community Matthew Trail 166.4 Child welfare workers and community service providers' viewpoints on Black children's overrepresentation in the child welfare system of Ontario, Canada Kofi Antwi-Boasiako 166.5 Exploring child welfare workers' clinical assessment of risk of future maltreatment and their attitude towards the child welfare system in one child welfare organization Kristen Lwin
13:15	14:15	Lunch

Version 3, 6 June 2024

14:15	14:45	Poster Exhibition 156 Assessing risk and change' prognosis in children and young people affected by domestic violence: A comprehensive review (Dora Pereira, Ana Isabel Sani) 142 Decision making and the out of home placement process from the perspective of children (Carina Pohl) 128 Decision-making processes and conditionality. How to implement decision-making processes capable of supporting beneficiaries of economic measures by preventing them from being sanctioned (Anna Zenarolla) 107 Existential epistemic injustice: An overlooked barrier to recognizing and addressing risk (Lia Levin) 146 Insights into the Development of Social Work Knowledge and Decision-Making during Times of multiple Crises: A Qualitative-Exploratory Study with Social Workers in Tyrol, Austria (Moritz Reisberger, Lena Rolvering) 130 Integrating Experiential Learning: Exploring the Influence of Social Work Students' Knowledge and Personal Experiences on Judgement and Decision-Making in a Child Abuse Simulation (Barbara Lee, Michelle O'Kane, Kristen Lwin) 168 Navigating Crises in Deindustrialised South Wales (Olivia Frigo-Charles) 129 New possibilities for assessing behavior problems: Introducing Questionnaire on Child and Adolescent Behavior (QCAB) in Croatian Social Welfare system (Andrea Ćosić) 141 On-site or on-line? Reflections on the effectiveness of two delivery formats of social work interventions, based on an intervention program with incarcerated Romanian juvenile offenders and university students in social work (Elena-Loreni Baciú, Theofilă Andrei Lazăr) 139 The first census of the social services workforce in Romania: Its story and main results (Elena-Loreni Baciú, Florin Lazăr, Mihai Bogdan Iovu, Conțiu Tiberiu Șoitu)
14:45	15:45	Plenary II Stress, Trauma and Decision-Making in Social Work - Cheryl Regehr
15:45	16:15	Coffee Break
16:15	17:45	Sessions II	Parallel Session 2.1 Service user participation and experiences	Parallel Session 2.2 Disabilities and neurodiversity in children, parents, and families	Parallel Session 2.3 Decision-making theory and frameworks	Parallel Session 2.4 Workshop Involvement of the social network of families with multiple problems
		16.15-16.35	150 Parental involvement and children's participation in decision making over time: Results from the analyses of case files in Germany Christoph Liel	138 Disabilities in children receiving care and support in Wales and risk factors associated with being placed in care: A population-based data linkage study Laura Elizabeth Cowley	172 Threshold Decisions in Social Work: Using Theory to Support Practice Donna O'Leary, Frank Ebsen, Olive Lyons	119 Involvement of the social network of families with multiple problems: an example of how existing knowledge can be translated to a practical tool for professionals Lorraine Visscher; Els Evenboer
		16.35-16.55	126 Childrens' and parents' experiences of child protection proceedings: results of an interdisciplinary study Brigitte Müller, Aline Schoch	151 Decision-making processes in Learning Disability Services in Northern Ireland Danielle McIlroy	155 Guiding Clients Through Decisional Crossroads: Towards a Comprehensive Framework Friederike Fliedner
		16.55-17.15	167 Urban Spaces and Youth Resilience: Youth Participation in Research and Decision Making Processes Pia Hollenbach, Olivia Frigo-Charles	120 Assessing parenting capacity: Missed opportunities and broken families. Mary Baginsky	125 Environments for intuitive decision-making: A theoretical framework for assessing intuitive-reasoning in social work Larissa Steimle, Simon Fleissner
		17.15-17.35	104 Parental decision-making in 'voluntary' care arrangements: deciding within the shadow of compulsion. Brandi Lee Lough Dennell, Robert Porter	148 Social workers' risk assessment in child protection with children with autism and/or ADHD Cecilie K. Moesby-Jensen
17:45	19:15	Welcome Reception
19:00	22:00	Conference Dinner (registration required)

21 June 2024

From	To	What (title, presenting authors)
8:45	9:15	Welcome coffee
9:15	10:15	Plenary III Decisions, Assessment and Risk: Where Are We Now? - Brian Taylor
10:15	10:45	Coffee Break
10:45	12:15	Sessions III	Parallel Session 3.1 Child protection services' decision making	Parallel Session 3.2 Ethical/quality issues and professionalization of social work	Parallel Session 3.3 Health, mental health, and clinical social work
		10.45-11.05	171 Child Protection Workers' views on conducting Child Sexual abuse investigations: What factors influence their decision-making? Olive Lyons, Barbara Fallon	101 Examining Disclosure of Childhood Sexual Abuse via a Social Model Joseph Mooney	144 Evidencing the value of social work and social work placements for General Practice Ines Zuchowski, Albert Kuruvila
		11.05-11.25	169 Examining the Relationship between Child Welfare Worker Characteristics and the Substantiation Decision Kristen Lwin	163 Child Protective Services: An Integrative Model of Clinical Supervision Carolina Coelho	135 Health Examinations of Children in Out-of-home Social Care from a Child Protective Services Perspective Godfried van Agthoven
		11.25-11.45	106 Decision-making on out-of-home care: the case of Flanders Johan Vanderfaeillie	127 Overlooking Risk Factors During the Pandemic: An Ecological Approach Child Welfare Practice Decisions Melinda Gushwa, Emily Douglas	178 Examining the Effect of Psychological First Aid Interventions using an AI WhatsApp chatbot Talia Schwartz Tayri
		11.45-12.05		116 A decision making ecology for 'voluntary' care arrangements: process, practice, and preferences Robert Porter, Brandi Lee Lough Dennell	165 How Social Work practice is leading the way in implementing new decision-making legislation in an Irish National Rehabilitation Hospital Renee Summers
12:15	13:15	Lunch

13:15	14:45	Sessions IV	Parallel Session 4.1 Risk prediction and risk assessment	Parallel Session 4.2 Tools, instruments, insights for practitioners	Parallel Session 4.3 Symposium Care for families with multiple problems – effectiveness, ethical and decision making issues (174, Chair: Tim Tausenfreund)
		13.15-13.35	153 Unleashing Machine Learning on Assessment Data to Bolster Alternative-to-Placement Decisions: Lessons Learned from an 8-Year Predictive Risk Model Implementation David Bard	143 Intersubjective emotion practices in systemic group supervision: Informing assessment and decision-making Louise O'Connor	174.1 Similarities and differences between interventions for families with multiple problems and their content in daily practice Loraine Visscher 174.2 The limited effects of home-visiting services to prevent child abuse and neglect: Empirical evidence and ethical implications David Lätsch
		13.35-13.55	109 Child welfare predictive risk models and legal decision making Matthew Trail	162 Exploring the utility of the Parental Capacities Evaluation Guide in Clinical Supervision Carolina Coelho, Dora Pereira	174.3 Doing justice to children in ethical and legal considerations by professionals in residential youth care. Susanne Höfte, Dorien Graas
		13.55-14.15	170 Exploring the Relationship between Child Welfare Worker Wellbeing, Organizational Influences, and their Assessment of Risk of Future Maltreatment Kristen Lwin	147 “You're just not going to know, are you?” Exploring Social Workers' sense-making processes and judgements of parental capacity for change; balancing hopes, worries and resources across past, present and potential future Katie Riches	174.4 Care for families in complex situations – norms, values and ethical questions Els Evenboer
		14.15-14.35	175 Algorithmic tools to help social workers in child protection service make well-informed decisions. The results of a scoping review. A.E. Gabriëls, C.H.Z. Kuiper
14:45	15:15	Coffee Break
15:15	16:25	Sessions V	Parallel Session 5.1 Intimate partner violence / domestic violence	Parallel Session 5.2 Child protection services research: methods, instruments, data	Parallel Sessions 5.3 Workshop Social work and disaster governance
		15.15-15.35	124 Join hands! Participative action research on interprofessional assessment and decision-making for families dealing with domestic violence Cora Bartelink	149 The Childhood Neglect Recollection Inventory: validity of a new instrument for adult self-reporting of childhood neglect. Tomer Carmel	145 Social Work and Disaster Governance: Exploring Ignorance, Sense-making, and Reflective Practice Pia Hollenbach, Olivia Frigo-Charles
		15.35-15.55	115 When is enough? Deciding on service provision when domestic violence features in child protection initial assessments: empirical evidence from sequential qualitative and quantitative studies in Ireland Donna O'Leary	176 Unveiling Childhood Adversity: Data Linkage Insights Talia Schwartz Tayri, Michal Maimon
		15.55-16.15	137 Coming to Terms with Risk Factors for Intimate Partner Violence Perpetration: A Scoping Review Lisa Norén	108 The contribution of Social Network Analysis to child protection research: A study example. Lukas Fellmann
16:25	16:35	Transfer to Closing
16:35	16:55	Closing			